COMPANY PROFILE

Rainforestation Nature Park:

- 100 acre (40 hectare) tourist attraction, set in the midst of World Heritage Rainforest.
- In operation since 1976 and is locally owned and operated by the Woodward family.
- Situated 30 minutes by coach from Cairns and 5 minutes from Kuranda Village.

RAINFORESTATION HAS 3 MAIN ATTRACTIONS:

Army Duck Rainforest Tour with Tropical Fruit Orchard (1 hour)

Follow the stalk walk to see a multitude of birds foraging in the waterways. The viewing tower provides visitors a unique vista of our black-necked stork, alongside a host of bird species, fruit bats and marsupials.

Pamagirri Aboriginal Experience (1 hour)

Pamagirri Dance Performance – showcasingAboriginal culture and traditions in a rainforest amphitheatre, accompanied by didgeridoo, clapsticks, and the soundsof nature.

Dreamtime Walk - Take an Aboriginal culture tour with the Pamagirri guides, watch spear-throwing and learn to throw a boomerang and play the didgeridoo.

Koala & Wildlife Park (30 minutes)

Wildlife Keepers take visitors through the park via elevated boardwalks that allow close-up views of unique Australian animals, including crocodiles, kangaroos, wallabies, dingoes, wombats, the cassowary, lizards and snakes. Have a digital photograph taken holding a cuddly koala, or a small crocodile (optional extras).

ALL ATTRACTIONS ARE AVAILABLE AS PACKAGES OR SINGULARLY.

Rainforestation features Colonial, Treehouse and Outback Restaurants for BBQ lunches and snacks, the Tropical Treats Juice Bar for fruits, icecreams andfresh juices, and a Souvenir Shop with an extensive range of Australian souvenirs andAboriginal artand artefacts. A Shuttle Bus runs regularly from Kuranda Village.

Groups, Functions, & Conferences

Rainforestation caters to groups of all sizes for any function or event, from informal luncheons or canapés and drinks to exclusive dinners orfully themed extravaganzas. We also offeradditional activities for pre-booked groups, such astree planting, boomerang painting, aboriginal animal tracking, facepainting, and sugar cane tasting.
